EMPLOYERS FORM VAST ORGANIZATION

New York, Nov. 16.—Prospects of the greatest industrial struggle in history were increasing today. The capital-and-labor situation arising from the railroads determination to fight the Adamson eight-hour law was accentuated by formation of a vast organization of employers to be known as the National Industrial Conference Board. This new body, representing $8,000,000,000 capital, and employing seven million persons proposes that industrial legislation shall be watched more closely, that legislators shall be guided by public information and that favoritism to labor shall be eliminated.

It will fight such measures as the Adamson eight hour law; and that the election shows that there is no labor vote and hence legislators hereafter need not curry favor with labor leaders as they claim has been done in the past.

The significance of the new alignment increased with receipt of word that the brotherhoods will join to force the eight hour day in all industries—not by legislation but by force of organized labor.

The railroads kept up their preparations for trying to prevent operation of the Adamson law. More suits covering all lines and all districts, will be submitted to courts all over the nation in the next ten days.

It was apparent in railroad circles today that the managers have virtually given up hope of coming to terms with the Brotherhood chiefs, although they said "the latest string is out for the men and their representatives."

The managers' conference has adjourned. Another meeting may be called next week, however, it was said today. One of the railroad managers said today he knows nothing about a reported conference with the president.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 16.—News from New York that capital had formed the National Industrial conference board to fight labor with its own weapons, stirred the leaders in the federation convention here today. President Gompers said he would discuss the new capitalist move before the convention the first of next week, when the railroad brotherhood chiefs are here.

GOVERNMENT TO START AGGRESSIVE FIGHT IN BEHALF OF 8 HOUR LAW

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Petition for injunction against enforcement of the Adamson law was filed by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad here today.

(By Robert J. Bender, United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 16.—The administration is ready to start an aggressive fight in behalf of the Adamson law, now the object of concerted attack by most of the big railroads of the country, it was made clear today.

Belief was expressed by high officials that the efforts to enjoin the operation of the law would fail.

It was suggested that the government might not confine its efforts to defensive tactics, if the hope of the railroads to prevent the operation of the law should appear likely of realization.

If the railroads tie up the enforcement of the Adamson act, the railroad workers are expected to strike.

It is the view of some of the president's advisors that the courts would hold the railroads responsible for interference with Interstate Commerce in such case and would compel them to abide by the provisions of the act.

The belief is strengthened by the fact that the Adamson law primarily is a measure designed to obtain a thorough and scientific investigation of facts on which to base final legislation. It is to be effective only six months, during the time of the investigation of the application of the eight hour day. It can be extended only thirty days at the request of the special commission appointed under it.

By reason of the very nature of the act, administration men are convinced, efforts to enjoin its operation will fail.

"On the other hand it is thought, it may be possible to enjoin 'interference' by the railroads with interstate traffic, as labor leaders were enjoined in the famous Pullman strike of twenty years ago.

Work of formulating the government's course of action proceeded rapidly today, under direction of Assistant General E. M. Underwood and Solicitor General John Davis. It appeared likely the government would file a demurrer claiming the Adamson law constitutional in answer to the railroads' plea for an injunction restraining its enforcement. This would result in a straight way fight on the constitutionality of the act and would serve more quickly to bring the case before the supreme court.

New York, Nov. 16.—The real secret of W. J. Bryan's visit east is to have his portrait painted for the department of state building at Washington. Irving Wiles will do the work and Uncle Sam will foot the bill.

J. I. HUDSON MAY GET A STATE JOB

Columbus, O., Nov. 16.—Former State Senator J. I. Hudson, of Portsmouth, is a strong possibility for state highway commissioner under the new Cox administration if James R. Marker, former commissioner, doesn't want the place again.

Marker has not decided whether he wants to return to public life.

Governor-Elect Cox himself is authority for the statement that he has not left to officers of the Ohio National Guard the selection of an adjutant general. In this connection, Colonel Byron L. Bargar, of Columbus, now commanding the Fourth Ohio Infantry, on the Mexican border, was mentioned as the likely appointee.

It is understood Cox has offered the place to Major George Wood, of Dayton, who held the place under the first Cox administration. Wood is now one of the trustees of the National Military Home at Dayton and may not care to give that up.

Democratic state leaders are urging Cox to "fire" both members of the Ohio civil service commission the day he takes office. Neither Z. B. Campbell, Republican nor S. D. Webb, Democrat, have been confirmed by the senate. Webb was prominent as a true Democracy leader in opposition to Cox two years ago.

SPECTACULAR ADVANCE BY GENERAL ZARRAIL BRINGS TROOPS WITHIN FOUR MILES OF THE CITY

London, Nov. 16.—Monastir is almost within reach of General Zarrail's indomitable Franco-Serbian forces after one of the most astonishing advances recorded in the great European war.

Battling against snow and rain over great natural mountain fortresses, the allied forces have now reached the plain of Monastir and today's official communique, partly confirmed in the Berlin statement, indicates the sweeping back of the Bulgarian-Teutonic line, to a point within four miles of the city of Monastir itself.

Berlin's admission was a brief comment that "prepared new positions" in the Cerna sector were occupied.

The new positions achieved by the Franco-Serbian forces are the result of two separate successive flanking movements. The first involved the almost impossible passage, under fire of the mountains which guard the bend of the Cerna river, to the east of Monastir, and a thrust westward from these hard won heights. It was successful. With practically all the Cerna banks in their possession the allies are now again striking out, forcing the Teutons back. This is the second abandonment of portions of the Monastir plain tacitly admitted by Berlin.

The Sofia official statement of today likewise admits a "return" northward toward Tepawiza and Cigol.

On the western front, the allies are sustaining again today the same determined German counter-attacks that have made this battle ground a chaos of fire. In a new assault during the night French troops succeeded in dislodging German forces which had taken part of the village of Pressoire.

The weight of the German counter attack was indicated in the French Communique declaring the Teutons threw the solid weight of three full divisions—approximately sixty thousand men—against the French line.

Hindenberg Forcing The British To Pay Heavy Toll For Gains On Somme

(By Carl W. Ackerman, United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, Nov. 16.—(Via Sayville wireless)—General Von Hindenberg is forcing the British to pay a toll of lives entirely disproportionate to their gains in the fighting on the Somme front, military authorities declare. Today he had their line under terrific fire with the prospect that the enormous casualties which they suffered in making their initial advance would be repeated.

All reports from the front say the British attack was entirely without regard to sacrifice of human life. The German troops bitterly defended their line despite almost complete destruction of their positions.

Advices today from the front say that officers admit that by concentration of enormous stores on a small front and launching of a gigantic attack, the enemy could win a few trenches and villages. But these attacks would be so costly that they could not be repeated often enough to make the entire territory won worth the price paid in men. Frank admission is made here in Berlin of British gains of fortified positions. But there are so many hundreds of smaller positions around the Somme horseshoe line that these attacks, according to German officers, may be considered uncomfortable—but not dangerous.

612-616 Second StreetHe Didn't KnowOne June day in 1892 near Fredericksburg, Va., General Stuewail Jackson saw one of General Hood's Texans climbing a fence to get into a cherry tree. "Where are you going?" shouted Jackson. "I don't know," replied the soldier. "To what command do you belong?" "I don't know," the Texan replied. "Well, what state are you from?" "I don't know," Jackson gave the man up, but he asked a comrade what it meant. "Well," was the reply, "Old Stonewall and General Hood gave orders yesterday that we were not to know anything until after the next fight."The Soldier was left to his cherries.*OBITUARY*F. C. HermsDeath at 1:20 Thursday afternoon removed another of Portsmouth's best known and most highly regarded citizens from this community, when F. C. Herms, former well known dry goods dealer passed away at the family residence on the Seinto Trail just north of the city. His death was attributed to heart failure and followed a week's illness. Mr.
Herms visiting the floral shop of the Herms Floral Company on Sixth street, as late as a week ago today.According to members of the family, Mr. Herms' condition, despite his advanced age, was not considered serious until this morning, when he suffered a simpling spell from which he failed to rally.Frank Charles Herms would have been 31 years of age had he lived until January 5, 1917. He was born in Wenden, Westphalia, Germany, and came to this country when about 18 years of age and located in Cincinnati. When quite a young man he came to Portsmouth and for many years had been identified with the mercantile interests of the River City.It was in the W. A. Connelley dry goods store on Chillicothe street and the Yeager Dry Goods Company's store on Market street that Mr. Herms acquired his early knowledge of the dry goods business. Convinced that this business offered him his best opportunities, Mr. Herms, after serving his clerkship, became a member of a firm known as Marting and Herms and for several years it was located at Seventh and Chillicothe streets. Eventually Mr.
Herms withdrew from this firm and later on opened a dry goods and notion store at Ninth and John streets. After successfully conducting this store for several years, he opened a much larger and more up-to-date dry goods store at Sixth and Chillicothe streets and devoted his time to its management until 15 years ago, when the store was closed.Mr. Herms in his declining years looked after the books of the Herms Floral Company. He was a man who had seen many years of active service in the mercantile channels and he refused to lead a retired life, which he could havedone at any time, so successful had he been in his earlier and more active years.Fifty-five years ago Mr. Herms was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Marting and nine children were born of their union, seven surviving with the faithful wife. The children are: Charles who travels for Reins and Meis-Cincinnati dry goods dealers, Edward of this city, Oscar of Portsmouth, Florida, Albert at the head of the Herms Floral company, the Misses Ida and Clara at home and Mrs. E. F. Ridout at Timmons avenue, this city. Mr.
Herms is also survived by one brother, Herman Herms of Wheelersburg.Mr. Herms was in every way a splendid citizen, a devoted husband and father. He lived for his family and his happiest moments came when he was in the bosom of his large and interesting family. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition Mr. Herms, however, possessed the happy faculty of making friends and he leaves a host of staunch and life long friends in the city who will be pained to learn of his death. It can be truthfully said that the world was better for Mr. Herms having lived in it. He was always progressive, always kind and always charitable.The body will be removed to the home of Mr. Herms' daughter, Mrs. E. F. Ridout of 1925 Timmons avenue and the last rites of this estimable citizen will be conducted from there sometime Saturday afternoon. The Rev.
Albert Marting will officiate. Interment will be in Greenlawn.Funeral FridayThe funeral services of James Rice, who died so suddenly at his home in Frost, Ky., Wednesday, will be conducted from the Zion church, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. B. B. Can-dill of this city will have

HAS "FIGHTING CHANCE"

Los Angeles, Nov. 16.—After hope had been abandoned by her friends and attendants yesterday following a relapse from which it was declared she could not recover, Inez Milholland Boissvain, noted suffragette leader, underwent a fifth blood transfusion operation during the night and was fought for life today. Surgeons said today her chances for recovery were slight.

Good Sized Crowd At Rink Opening

R. G. Gooding, manager of the Peerless Skating rink, which opened in Distel hall, Seventh and Chillicothe streets, Wednesday evening, was more than pleased with the opening crowd. The floor was crowded the entire evening, and if the opening night's business is a forerunner of what is to follow, the rink will be a big success. The rink will be open afternoon and evenings at Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. "Crazy Jack" Williams, who sealed the First National Bank building Wednesday evening, was the center of attraction at the rink last night. Music for the skaters is furnished by a Wurlitzer organ.

Rifle Club To Have Shoot Thanksgiving

The members of the Portsmouth Government Rifle Club will probably hold their first big shoot on Thanksgiving Day afternoon. The club now has a membership of 60. A target will be installed Saturday in a pit on the club's range on the Bannon place north of Kinney's Lane, directly over the hill from Oakland avenue. Only one target will be put up at a 200 yard range. The distance will be lengthened to 300 and 400 yards after the members have had a little practice. The range is big enough for a 500 yard target.

Fear Launch And Occupants Lost In Gale On The Lake

Toledo, Nov. 16.—Little hope was held out this morning for Clint Lynn, 34, and Schuyler Bartholomey, 17, who left Monday morning, yesterday morning for Toledo in the speed launch Baby Rambler, owned by Charles B. Greening, of Monroe. High seas were running on Lake Erie when the Rambler was headed for Toledo. Tugs scoured this end of the lake yesterday and during the night without finding a trace of the missing boat or its crew.

W. H. Oakes, 22 Years Old, Has "Infantile Paralysis"

W. Homer Oakes, aged 22 years, a son of E. B. Oakes, of Scioto Trail, has developed infantile paralysis, Dr. G. W. Chabot and consulting physicians diagnosing his case as such Thursday.

The young man's left side is affected and he has lost the use of his left arm. He is reported doing well and may recover. He is an employee of the Reliable Engine company.

Clay township authorities are taking steps to have the family home immediately quarantined. It is the second case of infantile paralysis that has developed in this vicinity.

Boy's Eye Injured

Paul King, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Pauline King, of the Everett restaurant on Chillicothe street, suffered a very painful injury Thursday morning about ten o'clock, when the pen point of a pen he was playing with pierced his left eye. Luckily the pen-point missed the eyeball. Mrs. King carried her child to Dr. H. A. Schirman's office for treatment. The boy's sight will not be injured.

Pleads Guilty

Frank Murphy, young man who was brought to this city recently from Ashland, Ky., by Sheriff E. W. Smith on a charge of failure to provide for an illegitimate child and a charge of bastardy preferred by Margaret Carey, Bloom township, was arraigned before Squire John W. Byron Thursday. He pleaded guilty to both charges and was bound over to grand jury on a $500 bond in each case.

Failing to furnish bond, he was remanded to the county jail.

Who Got These Boots

Harry Denton, manager of the Cincinnati Salvage store, Chillicothe street, is mourning the loss of a fine pair of ladies' high boots, which he is sure, somebody picked up, mistaking them for another package. The shoes had been given Mr. Denton and were valued at $10. He had intended taking them home to his good wife, and had placed them on a counter. Some one, it seems, mistook them for their own package and walked out with them. Mr. Denton would be much pleased if the person who took the shoes by mistake would return them. He offers a liberal reward for the return of the shoes.

LABOR LEADERS TO OPEN CONCERTED FIGHT FOR 8 HR. DAY FOR ALL CLASSES

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 16.—Leaders of the four railway brotherhoods will address the American Federation of Labor convention here next week on the eight hour principle. Their appearance is expected to inaugurate a concerted fight for the recognition of eight hours as a working day for all classes of employees.

At the same time the appearance of the Brotherhood leaders—Warren S. Stone of the engineers; A. B. Garretson of the conductors; W. G. Lee of the trainmen; and W. S. Carter of the firemen—is expected to hasten the coalition of the brotherhoods with the federation.

Labor leaders hope to force another 8-hour day not through legislation but through the power of organized labor.

"We are afraid of legislation," a high federation official, who revealed the above plan, said.

"What is done by legislation can be undone. We want to put through an eight hour day principle by direct negotiation with private employers, through the force of organized labor. 'We want if possible to extend the eight hour day to all industries. A man can do more and better work in eight hours, when results are tabulated, than he can in a longer day. At present the ship building trade—comprising machinists, boiler makers, and other unions—has no standard day. The government navy yards work its men eight hours a day. Private ship builders work their employees nine or ten or more hours a day. We are going to try to obtain recognition of the eight hour day in this trade, and also in the iron and steel industries."

RETURNS FROM TRENCH AND KILLS WIFE FOR ALLEGED INFIDELITY

London, Nov. 16.—The domestic tragedy of Lance Corporal Richard Cunningham has centered official scrutiny on a new phase of the slacker's character. Cunningham is charged with strangling his wife whom he had accused of infidelity while he was on the western front.

The accused soldier wrote to the London chief constable beseeching the officer to save his home and vowing a soldier's hatred of the type of slacker who had betrayed him.

"I write you from the trenches of France," said the letter, "to ask why this type of man is not doing his bit. Several times lately I have received reports of a man visiting my home and someone. Wednesday evening a crowd of young people motored out to Valley View Farm, the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. John Staker, of Powellsville, for an oyster supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Staker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dhl, the Misses Agnes Seidel, Bertha Jewett, Charlotte Marsh, Bessie Smith, Clara Marshall, Miss Cooper, Miss Shope and Messrs. Weaver, Billman, Robert Willis, Frank Schneider, Otto Smith, Con, William and Alden Staker and George Marsh. All reported a most enjoyable evening.

This endorser is the builder of Huntington's new $300,000 school house. His word goes:
"My little daughter, 8 years old, has been suffering with nervousness for two years. She was very excitable and weak. Seemed to be all run down. Doctored some and got temporary relief. Concluded to try Nerv-Worth and has taken one bottle. She is very much improved and I'm much encouraged over her condition. She's better than she has been for some time. There is a wonderful change in her condition. Sleeps pretty well, appetite fairly good. Take it all around she is better. I recommend Nerv-Worth."

The Movies

WILLIAM COLLIER, JR.; WYNDHAM STANDING AND ANNA LEHR IN TRIANGLE FEATURE, "THE BUGLE CALL."

Columbia Tonight

A story of the plains, in the days when Indian attacks were a real menace, is "The Bugle Call," Triangle drama starring Willie Collier, Jr., and to be seen at the Columbia tonight.

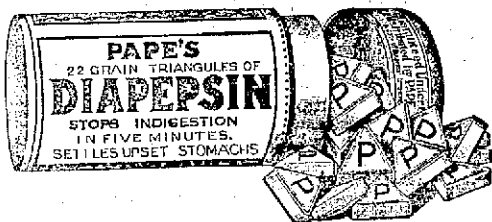

Young Collier, 14-year-old son of the famous Broadway star, has the role of Little Billy, son of the commandant at Fort McPherson, a frontier army post, and loved by every one in the place. He has every ambition in life, and that is to become a good soldier; and one military achievement he already has learned—to play the army bugle. It is only the good soldier in him that makes him tolerate the idea that his father is to marry again, for he cannot conceive of any one good enough to take his dead mother's place.

Soon after the wedding his father is called to quell an uprising of the Sioux Indians, forty miles to the south, and his new mother is left in his charge. Then the fort itself is attacked by Indians. Billy, who has hidden his stepmother in a cave in the hillside, suddenly sees that the outnumbered garrison is about to surrender. Believing himself of his bugle and, hoping to mislead the Indians into believing his father and the regiment are returning, he blows the charge from a distant knoll, with consequences that are exciting and satisfactory.

FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION. NO GAS OR ANY STOMACH MISERY

Don't suffer! Here's the quickest, surest relief known for Dyspepsia, Sourness, Heartburn or an Upset Stomach—Try it!

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt, if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; if your head dizzy and aches; if belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food, breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Diapiesin and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well" At Lyric Today

Rex Beach's greatest story, "The Ne'er-Do-Well," filmed by the Selig Polyscope company, will be presented by Manager Mack of the Lyric theatre to all lovers of high class film drama this afternoon and evening.

This wonderful film play is in ten acts and made in the Panama Canal Zone, where a company of Selig players repaired in order to secure realistic atmosphere.

An all-star cast including Kathlyn Williams, Wheeler Oakman, Eugene Bessner and other stars appear in this wonderful screen play. Beautiful tropical scenery abounds together with unusual sights along the Panama Canal. There is not a dull moment in this extraordinary production. This will be your only chance to see it, and the admission will be only 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children; shows continuous from 1:30 to 10 p. m.

Pauline Frederick in "Ashes of Embers" At the Lyric Tomorrow

"Ashes of Embers" gives beautiful Pauline Frederick, one of the greatest opportunities of her distinguished career. In this production she plays the dual role of Agnes and Laura Ward, two sisters, but totally different characters, the one a conceited, ruthless, conscienceless creature whose only thought is for her own personal gratification. So cruelly selfish is Laura that when her sister fails to provide the money which she craves for a new gown, she steals money from the cash drawer over which her sister has supervision, and causes her imprisonment. In the delineation of these characters Miss Frederick has done wonderful work, even for the star who has given "Zaza" and "Bella Donna" to the screen. There is nothing which requires more imaginative genius on the part of the star than the portrayal of two roles on the screen at the same time. That Miss Frederick is more than equal to this difficult task is evident from the magnificent performance which she has given in this great Famous Players production, "Ashes of Embers."

At the Exhibit

One of the strongest programs of the week is offered Exhibit real play, picturing a real problem today. There is four big reels and abounds in excitement from which form a varied program of drama and comedy. "Into the Pit" is the title of chapter twelve of "The Grip of Evil" that all are gripping the interest of thousands everywhere shown. In this episode Rolland Bottomley and Jackie Saunders play their best. Every scene brings you a new thrill and holds you spellbound. Don't miss this chapter of the serial which will terminate in two more weeks. John Burton at the close of today's story is still believing that humanity is in the "Grip of Evil". Henie and Louis are featured in another of their side-splitting, and riotous comedies. You all like Henie and Louis and their antics today are greatly amusing. As the concluding number there will be a Lonesome Luke comedy, one that is at fun and then some.

Five Big Reels At The Temple Theatre Tonight

With one of the biggest and best programs of the season, Manager Harold Potts, of the Temple Theatre, is prepared to take care of record-breaking crowds tonight. First and foremost will be a big Western drama, entitled, "Reformation of Dog Hole," a play that ripples with excitement at all times. "Shooting Up the Movies" is the title of one of the best comedies of the year—a laugh in every foot of film. Don't miss this one if you want to live long and prosper. It will put you in a good humor for months to come. The big program will close with a side-splitting farce, entitled, "Daisy, the Demonstrator." Only five cents to all.

Hinkle Is Robbed

T. E. Hinkle was the name given by a Duke, Hadden township farmer, who was robbed while aimlessly wandering around in the "Bad Lands" late Wednesday night.

Petroleum flowers and Besant found Hinkle lying in a helpless heap at Twelfth and Railroad streets Thursday morning at 1:45 o'clock, with not a penny left of the $49 he claimed to have brought with him when he came to the city on a noon N. & W. train Wednesday to visit a dentist.

Hinkle pleaded guilty in police court to a charge of drunkenness. He said it cost him $3 to have his teeth fixed. After that he went to New Boston and made the rounds of saloons there. He said he next turned up at a saloon near the N. & W. depot at 4 o'clock, but was ejected from it because of his condition. He had no recollection of meeting anyone after walking out the railroad tracks.

"You were simply 'roiled' out there, and I think I know who got your money, but I can not prove it. This is the fifth or sixth case of the kind that has happened out in that section in the past few weeks," said the mayor, then imposed a $5 fine on Hinkle for being so foolish as to visit that dangerous locality, telling him that besides losing his roll, he was lucky in not having been knocked in the head.

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Good Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs, who have tried advertised flesh-makers, food-fats, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered combination of assimilative agents has made fat grow after years of thinness, and it is also unequalled, judging from reports, for repairing the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable preparation is called Sargol. Six strength giving, fat-producing assimilative elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this preparation, which is endorsed and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A few weeks systematic use of Sargol should go far to produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by supplying nourishing fats to the blood. If not, every druggist who sells it is authorized to return the purchase price. Increased nourishment is obtained from the food eaten, and the additional fats that thin people need are thus provided. Fisher & Streich's Pharmacy and other leading druggists supply Sargol and say there is a large demand for it.

At The Strand

Manager Welch offers Dorothy Davenport and Emory Johnston in another of these big Red Feather feature dramas tonight.

"Black Friday" is the title of this unusual picture. These five reels form an extraordinary program and the play is one that tells a very interesting story. The time is during the administration of President U. S. Grant and the scenes change from this country to Paris during The Commune. In his part as the rugged railroad president, Richard Morris does exceptionally good work. He leads a stiff battle, and fight with the money but almost loses his wife's love. The scenes during The Commune are exciting and offer a treat in stage scenes. Dorothy Davenport plays the role of the wife. Don't miss this story of refreshing interest. A big three part comedy drama feature tomorrow is "The Girl Who Didn't Tell" with Violet Mercereau.

Council Appropriates Sum To Fight Suits Filed Against City

Matters discussed and measures enacted at the regular meeting of city council Wednesday evening did not include the Zaph Sunset avenue and Twentieth street controversy, which has taken a prominent part in deliberations of this body for some time. Several ordinances and resolutions were passed.

J. A. Zucker, clerk, read two communications, each notifying the legislative branch of the municipality of damages claimed. One was from Edward Doerr asking $400 damages to lot 242, Barr addition, in anticipation of the paving of Tenth street. The other was a claim filed by Tessie Fyffe for $5,000 damages alleged sustained when she stepped into a sunken manhole at the corner of Third and Chillicothe streets and broke her left foot. Attorney Theo. K. Funk represents the complainant.

Both claims were referred to the law and claims committee and the city solicitor.

S. Anselm Skelton, city solicitor, reported that he had negotiated with Henry Haues, owner of a strip of Gallia avenue, for the purchase of the same, to be used in straightening the street. Upon the recommendation of the owner, a board of arbitration consisting of J. F. Wanless, Val Heisel and Merle O. Dinduit, was appointed to set a value upon the property. Two members appraised it at $300 and the other member at $1800.

The owner agreed to accept $300 and the solicitor recommended that the price set by the majority of the board be accepted. The solicitor was instructed to bring in the legislation necessary.

A letter from S. D. Feldhart, county auditor, stating that $1,552.50 transferred to the city library fund from the collateral inheritance tax, was read. This transfer should have been made to the general fund, according to the county auditor, and was recommended for the library fund inadvertently, through not having a copy of the statute pertaining to the matter.

City Will Fight Case

Ordinances were passed under suspended rules appropriating $1,500 to defray the expenses of defending the suit instituted against the city by Frank A. Bone for royalties alleged due on infringement of patent rights in the construction of the flood wall, and for $1,400 for a suit filed by the John H. McGowan company for the remainder due on the installation of pumping equipment at the water works and for extras claimed.

Mayor H. H. Kaps reported that several citizens living on Poplar street wanted a sanitary sewer. A petition will be presented.

Service Director Ralph Culvert submitted the following estimates, for which legislation was ordered: Paving Bond street, between Front and Second streets, estimate $1,597.50 and the paving of Chestnut street between Walnut and Gallia, estimate $3,773.

A motion was passed, upon the recommendation of the service directors, granting Frank Seymour the right to make four sanitary sewer taps on his Mill street property free, for the privilege he extended to the city of crossing his property when the route of the flood wall was changed.

More Fire Hose Needed Says "Clunk" The urgent need of 450 feet of fire hose and the quick disposal of the horses and other apparatus at the three engine houses, was voiced by Safety Director E. K. S. Clinkenbeard. He stated that he had been advised by the Seagraves company, Columbus, that the other two motor trucks, which will complete the motorization of the departments, would arrive between December 1 and 5. Recommendations were also made that automobile accident insurance be issued on the new apparatus.

Fire Chief George Keerner said he was endeavoring to save the city as much money as possible and asked that the horses and harness and other paraphernalia pertaining to horse-drawn apparatus be disposed of just as soon as possible. Of the $582 asked by the board of election in an ordinance, Charles W. Wilson withheld $250 pending investigation. The rest of the amount asked was allowed under suspended rules. The $250 was listed as incidentals, rent, etc.

An ordinance authorizing the issuing of $2,000 worth of levy and embankment bonds was passed. The bonds will bear 4 1/2 percent interest.

The transfer of $130.51 from the Water Front Improvement fund to the Service fund was allowed by resolution.

The vacation of a six-foot strip on the north side of Walnut street, between Norfolk and Chestnut streets, was ordered. This strip of land will be used for sidewalk purposes.

A tract of land containing .55 of an acre and located on Twelfth and Robinson avenue was appropriated for park purposes. This is the J. W. Bannan property.

Plans and specifications for installing a 3-inch water main in an alley between Summit and High streets and Vinton and Robinson avenues, were approved by resolution.

A tract of land consisting of 1.83 acres and located in Porter township near the new water works plant, which the Whitaker Glessner company desires for further extension, was ordered sold at public auction to the highest bidder. This was done by the passage of an ordinance.

Levels Taken By Engineer

Samuel Harger, city engineer, reported that he had taken levels along the Chillicothe street sanitary sewer to determine if the drainage in the basement of a building at Fourth and Chillicothe streets was adequate. He found that there was a drop of 4 inches. In his estimate he said that this was sufficient.

A letter from the state board of health was received and read, in which it was asked if the city had passed ordinances defining the purposes of sanitary sewers and the conditions under which connections could be made. This was referred to the ordinance committee.

The completion of services on the paving of Dorey avenue, Bannan Place and Tenth street, was reported by L. A. Zucker, clerk.

A resolution was passed authorizing the issuance of certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $3,000 for the purpose of paying salaries and current expenses of the executive and legislative departments. It was explained that this amount would be used to defray the expenses of the two law suits filed against the city by the John H. McGowan company and Frank A. Bone. The net balance in the treasury was given at $98,880.27.

Miss Alma Morris Lands A Fine Job

Concerning a splendid position which Miss Alma Morris, formerly of this city, has secured, the Columbus Dispatch says:

"Miss Alma Morris, of 208 West Eighth avenue, has been appointed director of girls and women's activities of the public recreation department, effective November 15. She succeeds Miss Emilie Prugh, who resigned last spring.

"Miss Morris is a graduate of the Ohio State University, and has taken a special course in recreation class work and folk dancing. Women and girls who wish to enter recreation classes this winter are asked to register at the City Hall gymnasium Wednesday.

Miss Morris will be there all day to receive the applicants. "The work will consist of elementary, intermediate and high school gymnasium classes and also classes for business women and school teachers. Basketball and folk dancing will be taught and there will be a volleyball league and leagues for other girls' athletic sports."

C. & O. Bridge Across Little Scioto Has Been Completed

Work of erecting the biggest bridge on the C. & O. Northern between Sciotoville and Waverly has been completed over the Little Scioto river two miles back of Sciotoville.

It is an under-truss bridge and is commonly called by the railroad men and contractors a culvert bridge, there being no overhead steel work to the structure. All supports are under the floor of the bridge or trestle. The main steel supports rest on small concrete piers, the largest piers being at the edge of the water.

This bridge or trestle extends from the end of the big fill across the Ketter farm on the west bank of the river to Merwin hill which is at the eastern end of the Narrows back of Sciotoville. The bridge not only carries the tracks over the river but over the lowland skirting the river on both sides. The floor of the bridge is over 100 feet from low water and is almost 1000 feet long. The trucks of the new railroad go from the field onto the bridge and then into the deep cut in Merwin hill. The bridge is over 40 feet from the road that is along the base of the hill that forms the Narrows.

The Stroebel Steel Construction company of Chicago did the work, the steel being furnished by the Mt. Vernon Bridge company, the company that furnished steel for the Scioto river bridge at the west end of the city. The Stroebel company completed the work in three months and is already moving its large "travelers" used in lifting the massive pieces of steel. The Stroebel company also placed the steel culverts that carry the C. & O. N. tracks over the B. & O. S. W. at Mud Pit, mile and a half back of Sciotoville. J. H. Finley was the superintendent in charge.

$25 Per Rumpus Is The Mayor's Ruling; Other Police News

A young man giving the name of S. Sampson was reminded in police court Thursday morning that there was one fixed fine for any and all persons who created disorders in the segregated district and that is $25 which sum he was ordered to pay.

Sampson was arrested for creating a big disturbance at Katie McDowell's house Wednesday night, he running the inmates into their rooms and particularly attacking one girl. His only excuse for his action was that the girl had called him a vile name. He denied having boasted that there was no police force to "take him."

Cecil Platt, who said he was now employed with a crew of surveyors at the government dam, was fined $10. Platt was drunk and assaulted John Lyons, the man who was trying to take him to his home in the West End.

Frank Browning was the name given by an East End man who was drunk and noisy at Eighth street and Broadway. As it was his first offense half of a $10 fine was suspended.

Doumett Craig was the name given by a man claiming to be a "hoisting" fireman from Huntington, who was arrested early Thursday morning for train riding. He said he had been working for the Dravo company on the new water works at the steel plant but had gone to Waverly to seek employment with a railroad contracting firm and caught a freight coming back. He was fined $5 for train riding.

Sentence was withheld in the case of W. C. Rudy, who was given a private hearing before the opening of court. He had been arrested for creating a disturbance at his home on Third street. His wife and daughter appeared in court but their respective differences were ironed out for the time being and they left together.

Al "Catsy" Sly was locked up Wednesday night for safekeeping and will be kept in hoc until he has thoroughly sobered.

Knife Victim Seems To Be Real "Rough Neck," Declares Mayor Kaps

Charles Kountz, the colored elevator boy, who slashed J. C. Turvey, an N. & W. extra brakeman, with a pocket knife at the Washington hotel Monday night, was bound over to the grand jury by Mayor Kaps Tuesday morning on a charge of cutting to kill. His bond was fixed at $200.

"I am firmly opposed to cutting but this man Turvey is a common 'rough-neck' judging from the talk he delivered himself of here in court the same evening," said Mayor Kaps, adding, however, that he believed it to be a case for the grand jury to investigate. He said he had just inquired at the hospital, regarding Turvey's condition and was told that it was very satisfactory.

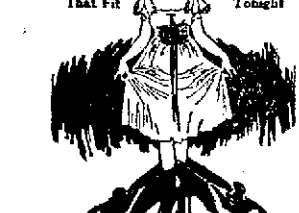

Roy Newman, who was with Turvey at the time of the cutting, testified that they were just coming out of the hotel wash-room when they noticed the colored youth standing near the shoe-shine box. He said Turvey greeted him by the name of Dabney. The boy replied that that was not his name. Turvey then exclaimed, "Oh, come on, Dabney." The boy repeated that such was not his name.

The witness said he himself then remarked to Turvey that he did not believe the boy knew him, to which Turvey made some passing reply and they then started to leave the room. Newman said he walked ahead and he did not know that there was any trouble until he turned and saw the boy holding one hand up against Turvey's face and his other down under Turvey's arm. He said he had thought them struggling in fun, but when an instant later he saw the boy slash Turvey across the face he knew that there was trouble. He said he himself notified him, the night clerk, telling him that a cutting affray had just occurred. The clerk, he said, paid no heed.

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment with 'this' or 'that' and rubbing with the roughest and simplest thing I know of—just a few drops on in a few seconds."

adds: "GETS-IT" does the rest. The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that make corns pop—red, raw, and bleed, and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all this—use "GETS-IT." The simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails to attack corns. Your corns, blisters, then, are off. You are now free of all shoe troubles.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sent in Portsmouth and recommended as the world's best Corn Remedy by Columbia Drug Store and J. B. Davis Drug Co.

WESLEY HALL

These are busy days and heavy nights at the Mission.

Our industrial stores are open to the public on Wednesdays and Saturdays. These two days are always busy days. Several families are already appealing to us for aid. A large number of homeless men are eating at our tables and sleeping in our beds. Owing to the present high prices we predict a very heavy winter at our institution. In order that we may be able to meet the demands made on us we desire to make every possible preparation. We want to call upon the citizens of this city and surrounding towns and villages to help us. Our clothing stock is running low. We need several hundred pairs of second-hand shoes—shoes which are worn and torn will help in our work. If the readers of this article have cast off clothing, shoes, old carpets or bedding around the house we would be glad to send our wagon for them.

In many homes there is clothing which the children have outgrown or someone has died and left and which will be used no more. Why let it lay until destroyed by moth, when it could be used by us. The old shoes which lay around the barn or garage, why not let us have them? We are in need of gas and coal heating stoves. Why not let us have these if you have no need of them longer? We are in need of a dozen beds or cots for our large sleeping ward. Anyone having these will do us a great kindness if one or more would be given. We want books, papers and magazines. We appeal to the homes of this city for the waste paper. Why throw it to the garbage or burn it, when it will be a help to our work? Why not save it? Call us and let us get it once or twice a week.

We want your magazines. We are sure there are tons of them in the city which will be read no more. Up in the garret or down in the basement or out in the garage they have been stored away for months. These could be put to no better use than given to the Mission. Call phone 409-B or 660-B.

WOMAN IN HOME WITHOUT ANY FIRE IS RETURNED TO COUNTY INFIRMARY

After listening to the facts in the rather complicated case of Mrs. John Freeman, of Fourth and Madison streets, Monday night, Mayor Kaps ordered the safety department to re-commit her to the county infirmary.

Mrs. Freeman is 65 years of age and the wife of an employee for Contractor Frank Seymour. It seems that she fractured her hip in a fall some months ago and was sent to the infirmary. Against the county infirmary superintendent's wishes the woman's husband came later and took her away. She was sent back only to be taken away again by the husband, although according to neighbors he never took care of her when he did take her back home. He again sought to have her sent back to the infirmary, claiming his wife is weak of mind and that

NEW BOSTON

Workers are pouring concrete for the bridge at the head of Millbrook lake connecting Maple street in Stewartville with Milldale road which Messrs. Turley and Jordan, owners of Milldale addition, are building as a western outlet to their land north of the first ridge of hills east of the lake. They own all of the ground along this ridge from New Boston to Stewartville. The road around Basham Hill following the east bank of the lake is impassable during the winter season.

Kountz on the advice of his counsel, Attorney Willard Gustin, took the stand in his own behalf. He said he had gone after a pitcher of ice water for a guest when Turvey called him by the name of Dabney. He said when he told him that that was not his name Turvey called him a vile name and struck him in the face twice, stunning him. He said he knew he was no match for him and so began using his knife, and did not know how had he had cut Turvey.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if cross, bilious or feverish

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or had stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

THEATRICAL

At the Sun

The management of the Sun theatre has contracted for a wagon load of presents for the second country store tomorrow night and requests all those who have coupons to bring them in. For the last three days of this week starting tonight "The Game" will be played. This is a comedy drama quite different from anything so far presented by the Broadway Players and no doubt will make a big hit. There is a lot of good wholesome comedy running all through the play and some real thrills and excitement can be looked for. The Broadway Players are now in their fifth successful week and as each week brings bigger and better plays and the crowds are getting larger it is a settled fact that Portsmouth theatregoers are getting their money's worth at the Sun. Phone for tickets any time from 9 a. m. to 11 p. m. They will be held until 8 p. m. the day for which the tickets were ordered. Remember tomorrow night country store night.

WAVE OF GERMAN FIRE AND STEEL SWEEPS ALONG ALLIED FRONT

TEUTONS MAKE MIGHTY THRUST, ARMIES GRAPPLE ON A 60 MILE FRONT; FRENCH ARE FORCED BACK

[BULLETIN]
Berlin, Nov. 16.—(Via Sayville, Nov. 16.)—German troops have stormed and occupied the eastern portion of the village of Saillies on the French, according to the war office statement today.

London, Nov. 16.—An unceasing series of attacks and counter-attacks swept a wave of fire and steel across six miles of the Franco-British front today. There it appeared the mightiest thrust the Germans have yet made in counter attack was centering upon that portion of the line where the British and French forces joined hands. Meanwhile, along the rest of the sixty mile front there was an almost continuous grapple. To the north, the British were still smashing forward, consolidating their gains, and improving their positions under desperate onslaughts from the enemy. Southward the French lines were forced slightly to give way from the tremendous concerted pressure at the very base of the angle, which recent British and French gains have thrust into the German lines. The German gains were insignificant compared to the prodigious expenditure of men and ammunition which they expended. Every instrument of warfare in the German repertoire

J. I. HUDSON MAY GET A STATE JOB

Columbus, O., Nov. 16.—Former State Senator J. I. Hudson, of Portsmouth, is a strong possibility for state highway commissioner under the new Cox administration if James R. Marker, former commissioner, doesn't want the place again.

Marker has not decided whether he wants to return to public life.

Governor-Elect Cox himself is authority for the statement that he has not left to officers of the Ohio National Guard the selection of an adjutant general. In this connection, Colonel Byron J. Bargar, of Columbus, now commanding the Fourth Ohio Infantry on the Mexican border, was mentioned as the likely appointee.

OPPOSE LOBBYING

Lima, O., Nov. 16.—Opposition to any lobbying in behalf of suffrage at the coming session of the state legislature had arisen today in the ranks of the Ohio Women's Suffrage Association in convention here. Leaders insist on concentrating forces for the national fight and passage of the Susan B. Anthony amendment, providing women with the ballot. It is urged that a state fight be passed up in favor of the national campaign. Election of officers and formulation of plans for the next year were not the important things on today's schedule. The liveliest telephone wires in Portsmouth are those leading to the TIMES WANT AD department.

BRITISH PAY HEAVY TOLL FOR GAINS MADE IN NEW THRUST ON ANCRE

(By Carl W. Ackerman, United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, Nov. 16.—(Via Sayville, Nov. 16.)—General Von Hindenberg is forcing the British to pay a toll of lives entirely disproportionate to their gains in the fighting on the Somme front, military authorities declare. Today he had their line under terrific fire with the prospect that the enormous casualties which they suffered in making their initial advance would be repeated. All reports from the front say the British attack was entirely without regard to sacrifice of human life. The German troops bitterly defended their line despite almost complete destruction of their positions. Advice today from the front say that officers admit that by concentration of enormous stores on a small front and launching of a gigantic attack, the enemy could win a few trenches and villages. But these attacks would be so costly that they could not be repeated often enough to make the entire territory won worth the price paid in men. Frank admission is made here in Berlin of British gains of fortified positions. But there are so many hundreds of similar positions around the Somme horseshoe line that these attacks, according to German officers, may be considered uncomfortable—but not dangerous.

FOOD DICTATORSHIP TO BE ESTABLISHED OVER THE ENGLISH

(By Ed L. Kean, United Press Staff Correspondent)
London, Nov. 16.—England is to have a food dictatorship plan today in support of the government's food dictatorship plan. Not a newspaper nor an individual, apparently, in the whole United Kingdom, voiced criticism of the plans announced in parliament yesterday by Walter Runciman contemplating conservation of England's food supply. The only criticism heard were that the government control had been over long delayed and the preliminary plans as announced were insufficiently sweeping or drastic. It is known however that Runciman's announcement was purely preliminary and that he did not reveal all the steps of control which the government is determined upon. The food dictatorship, it was said, may eventually extend to the thoroughness of the German system. The British people are fully prepared for the sacrifices which it is realized will be consequent upon operation of the new plan. The public is all the more willing to submit to the hardships of a controlled food supply in view of the thrilling stories of British army heroism now reaching here. It was accepted here that the first activities of the new dictatorship would have to do with limitation of the use of sugar in costly confectionery, of indiscriminate feeding to animals of vegetables, suitable for human consumption and the wasteful use of white flour and potatoes. Retail food prices, according to semi-official statistics, available today, show that in a year there has been increase of about 27 per cent. Prices are now about 78 per cent higher than they were prior to the war. But on such staples as eggs, potatoes, fish and sugar, the prices have nearly doubled.

Wanted A Warrant For Arrest Of Pres. Wilson

New York, Nov. 16.—"I want a warrant for the arrest of Woodrow Wilson." Max Lockwith, of Brooklyn, made this modest request of Magistrate Voorhies in the Williamsburg police court today. "I gotta arrest Woodrow Wilson," he explained in answer to the magistrate's questions. "He's let this European war go on too damn long. It's time he had a lesson."

LABOR LEADERS TO OPEN CONCERTED FIGHT FOR 8 HR. DAY FOR ALL CLASSES

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 16.—Leaders of the four railway brotherhoods will address the American Federation of Labor convention here next week on the eight hour principle. Their appearance is expected to inaugurate a concerted fight for the recognition of eight hours as a working day for all classes of employees. At the same time the appearance of the Brotherhood leaders—Warren S. Stone of the engineers; A. B. Garretson of the conductors; W. G. Lee of the trainmen, and W. S. Carter of the firemen—is expected to hasten the coalition of the brotherhoods with the federation. Labor leaders hope to force another 8-hour day fight through legislation but through the power of organized labor. "We are afraid of legislation," revealed the above plan, said. "What is done by legislation can be undone. We want to put through an eight-hour day principle by direct negotiation with private employers, through the force of organized labor. "We want it possible to extend the eight-hour day to all industries. A man can do more and better work in eight hours, when results are tabulated, than he can in a longer day. At present the ship building trade—comprising machinists, boiler makers, and other unions—has no standard day. The government navy yards work its men eight hours a day. Private ship builders work their employees nine or ten or more hours a day. We are going to try to obtain recognition of the eight-hour day in this trade; and also in the iron and steel industries."

Fear Launch And Occupants Lost In Gale On The Lake

(BULLETIN)
Toledo, Nov. 16.—Little hope was held out this morning for Clint Lynn, 34, and Schnuyler Bartholomey, 17, who left Monroe, Mich., yesterday morning for Toledo in the speed launch Baby Rambler, owned by Charles B. Greening, of Monroe. High seas were running on Lake Erie when the Rambler was headed for Toledo. Tugs scoured this end of the lake yesterday and during the night without finding a trace of the missing boat or its crew.

RETURNS FROM TRENCH AND KILLS WIFE FOR ALLEGED INFIDELITY

London, Nov. 16.—The domestic tragedy of Lance Corporal Richard Cunningham has centered official scrutiny on a new phase of the slacker's character. Cunningham is charged with strangling his wife whom he had accused of infidelity while he was on the western front. The accused soldier wrote to the London chief constable beseeching the officer to save his home and voicing a soldier's hatred of the type of slacker who had betrayed him. "I write you from the trenches of France," said the letter, "to ask why this type of man is not doing his bit. Several times lately I have received reports of a man visiting my home and sometimes stopping all night, while I am here at the front in answer to my country's call. "It is shameful such men should be left at home while we are out here month after month, in rain and mud, taking our turns under fire that England may be safe. Why hasn't this man been called for service? I never get letters from him."

WEATHER

Ohio—Generally fair tonight and Friday with probably snow flurries near Lake Erie. Somewhat warmer tonight.

Yale Bull Dog And Princeton Tiger To Hook Up Saturday

By E. C. HAMILTON
United Press Staff Correspondent
New York, Nov. 16.—Indications today are stronger than ever that those who journey to Princeton Saturday will be rewarded with one of the hardest fought football games that has taken place between the Yale bull dog and Princeton tiger for many a day.

The reason is this: Dave Tibbitt has returned to the Princeton lineup and there is every probability he will get a chance to insert a thrill or two by attempting field goals.

Chob Sheldon, Yale tackle, who was sent to the infirmary and counted out of football for the rest of his days, again is wearing togs at New Haven and the chances are very good that he will get into action against Princeton.

Most surely he will be ready for the big combat with Harvard.
These two facts are enough to instill life and pep into the two teams.
Princeton, accorded more than an even chance to lay the blue bow, is falling in the estimation of critics since it has developed that not once this year has so much energy been shown in offensive work as right now in daily practice at Yale.

The back field is playing an extraordinary style, with Jacques, Neville and Legera in the points.
Tibbitt has been out several times trying out his toe for the Tigers, but so far he has been kept out of scrimmage practice.
His place has been filled by Ames, who is said to be showing well as a half back.

Giants Defeated Ivories In Three Close Games

Those galloping Giants, so ably captained by Charles Daehler, who because of his generalship has gained the cognomen of "Der Kaiser," put the Ivory Knobs to the black at the Play House alleys, last night, when in rolling the postponed game from one week ago they took three in a row from last year's champs and put themselves away at the top of the heap. The Giants' record at this time is 11 won and 1 lost, the percentage of 91, enough to win the pennant in any old league.

The Giants had little trouble in annexing the first game, which they won by the margin of 72 pins. The second battle was a much closer one, the Giants getting it by a margin of 41 pins, official score. The Ivories bucked on their shooting arms for fair in the last game, which was a close-run thing. In fact the Giants won because two of the Ivories, Messrs. Raymond York and William F. Zottmann, shot into splits in the last frame, which gave the Giants their chance and one they accepted with all sorts of eagerness and skill. This game was decided by the narrow mark of 12 pins, a sufficiency, 'tis true, but as a loss a slave as one can get with a Ghille.

George S. Witham was the big noise of the evening. In fact the engineer created two records: He made high average and high score in the Giant-Ivory game and incidentally duplicated this stunt while shooting as anchor man in the Dy Dippers-Bug duck pin contest. A versatile roller is Mr. Witham. Sheridan was the second best ball. Ed Ruckey, who arrived home from New York shot in the first game for the Giants and then gave way to Dallas Lemon who kept up his good work. Frank Baker, the Shameless Shoe Man had a fine evening and Captain Daehler was right there all evening.

Getting Started Right Is Secret Of Strikers

By Jimmy Smith

World's Greatest Bowler

Getting the ball started right on the alley is the secret of strikes and complete spares.
The speediest bowler in the world, the man with the best hook will fall down unless the ball is started right. I have tried many deliveries, but the one I have used for the last five or six years, I believe, is the best.

Stand at or 13 feet back of the foul line, holding the ball easily in front of one in both hands while I measure the distance.

SWINGS AS HE RUNS.

Start the swing of the ball with the run toward the foul line and as the side begins let the ball down easily to the alley, turning it slightly with the wrist.

Always start the ball from the right-hand corner of the alley if you are right-handed, and from the left side if you are left-handed.
The object in strike-getting is to hit the "one-three crutch," that is, directly between the No. 1 and No. 3 pins.
This cannot be done with a ball started down the center of the alley and is a left-and-miss affair with a ball started from the side unless the ball is hooked properly.

PRACTICE SHORT HOOK

Practice the short-hook carefully and practice hitting the one-three crutch. I have had the best success with a black mineralite ball. It gives a better hook and spin.
I want to warn novices against the use of a leaded or "dodo" ball. These balls are barred in most tournaments, as they should be.

Not Many Bases Stolen

Base-stealing wasn't much practiced in the National league during the 1916 campaign. The managers simply wouldn't let their men steal, preferring to have them batted round rather than run any risks with the rifle-shot throwing of the catchers. Official averages show there were only seven men in the league who stole 200 feet or more in a game, and the seven were as follows:

Player	Stolen Bases
Carry, Pittsburgh	157
Holke, New York	151
Kauf, New York	151
Bescher, St. Louis	151
Burns, New York	151
Hernandez, Cin. New York	151
Margrave, Boston	151

Chicago, Nov. 16.—Joe Tinker is here today on the heels of rumors that Frank Chance is willing to take $25,000 in cash to leave the Cubs.
Tinker did not see President Weegman, although he visited the Cub offices today. Weegman is known to be strong for Tinker, although several large stockholders are said to favor a change.

ACHES AND PAINS

Don't neglect a pain anywhere, but find out what causes it and conquer the cause. A pain in the kidney region may put you on your back tomorrow. Don't blame the weather for swollen feet, it may be an advanced warning of Bright's disease. A pain in the stomach may be the first symptom of appendicitis. A crank in a joint may be the forerunner of rheumatism. Chronic headaches more than likely warn you of serious stomach trouble. The best way is to keep in good condition day in and day out by regularly taking GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL Capsules. Sold by reliable druggists. Money refunded if they do not help you. Beware of substitutes. The only pure imported Haarlem Oil Capsules are the GOLD MEDAL.

POINTS TO REMEMBER

Stories of a quack's life.
Interesting stories are told of a Buddhist image in a temple in the suburbs of Kyoto. According to a record contained inside the image it was carved by a famous Buddhist priest, and it is believed that worshippers of the image will surely receive divine favor. At one time when a fire broke out in the temple, unknown to the priest, the image saved him by calling "Fire" and thus saved the temple from destruction. Another story says that the image was once stolen by a thief, who, however, fell dead when he was running away. Still another report says that no dust ever accumulates on the head of the image.

The winners out by a record game in their second contest when with a blind first shot 565, a score that would win first prize in any tournament on earth. Every one of the Dy Dippers averaged well above the 100 mark. George Wilhelm, captain, averaging 121 and getting high score 138. Bill Gableman was away out there, averaging 113. Ed Leach and Art Hamm shot carefully and persistently and more than held up their end of the argument.

Failure of one super-backfield man to develop at Chicago university determined the entire system of coaching as practiced by Alonzo A. Stag and resulted in the most disastrous season Chicago has had in years.

Actors' Incomes

In the American Magazine a well-known critic tells what he knows about actors' salaries. He says:
"In computing an actor's income one must remember also that the only expense met by the management is that of railroad fare. The actor on tour pays for his sleeping car accommodations. Also it is the general custom to require the player to purchase at his own expense all modern wardrobe. This burden falls particularly hard upon women in plays of contemporary life. In each act a different gown must be worn and the costuming of a part is as important as the ability to act."

Diagnosing Behavior.
A little girl who had been instructed not to talk in church because it was very rude was very thoughtful after the service, and when questioned she said in a horrified voice:
"Oh, mamma, I think I was just awful for not talking or showing off so calmly in church! He talked all the time!"—New York Times

Ohio State Is Now Known Everywhere

Columbus, Nov. 16.—What an advertisement a real football team is for a university is being felt here in Columbus. But you ever have the experience of going down east and monitoring Ohio State and have your friend inquire where the institution was located? That has happened to many a Columbus man or an Ohio State alumnus.
Ohio State's victories over Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana have made the team talked of all over the country and very few now inquire where Ohio State is located or want to know whether it is a real institution or not. When Northwestern comes here Saturday, November 25, to settle the West-conference title football men of many states will have their eye on Columbus, and await the result of that big game. Yes, a real football team is a wonderful advertisement. Ohio State is discovering that right now.

IT IS QUALITY THAT COUNTS

Sometime ago it was said in these columns, in reference to wages, that the higher a man's wages the comparatively easier was it to obtain a raise thereof. The point was not elaborated, merely the naked fact stated. Going into the reason therefore, we find it is because the higher wage the fewer are there that are able to return value therefor and so the less supply for the need and demand.

We find this law working out as curiously, as it is illustrative in the matter of precious gems. Diamonds of inferior quality are less often found than emeralds. Wherefore if you look into any jewelry window you find the emerald marked far below the diamond in price, though the latter be altogether insignificant in comparison as to size. Flawless emeralds, on the other hand, are much less common than pure diamonds, say in the proportion of one to ten thousand, from which the former becomes then the more precious gem of the two, a pure diamond, weighing a carat, bringing anywhere from $250 to $500, while the emerald matching it in quality will bring anywhere from $350 to $600. In a four carat weight a pure diamond would bring somewhat above $2,000, while it would take one of these modern fortunes to buy a faultless emerald of the same size. So you see it lies in the quality and the scarcity, the demand existing.

Demand is really the foundation of value, but the greater the ability to supply the demand the greater the reward to the individual. The man of the highest skill, of powers of productivity is paid the highest wage or salary. His place is not easily filled and so we find that in the crafts wages are measured in a degree by the skill required commonly thereat and, to the contrary, in the work that everybody can do, where little or no cunning is needed, the wages fall to the smallest possible sum at which men can be got to work, making often a seemingly unjust pay for human toil.

AS TO THINKING AND KNOWING

Perhaps, of all things brought against him, the attack upon him for his policy in regard to Mexico, was the one most persistently harped upon and dealt with. Every other issue, real or fictitious, had its day, so to speak, but the Mexican question we had with us the whole time, growing in volume and violence to the very end.

In it we have a difference shown between thinking a thing and knowing something about it. For of course Mexico was a political pretext, out of which it was hoped to have votes thrown against Wilson. A fair conclusion is the exact opposite effect. The agitation on the subject did not injure Wilson. Far from that if any one thing made for his election it was just this one. For he carried Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California, to say nothing of Nevada and Utah. The first four of the states border on Mexico and the other two are in more intimate relation therewith than other sections of the country. Texas, of course, is hardly to be reckoned, since her Democratic majority is as impregnable as Pennsylvania's Republican, but the others are in general action Republican. It is logical to assume that being most familiar with the Mexican situation, they voted for Wilson because of his handling thereof. Without their votes he could not have been elected. Therefore does it appear logical to assert that the one thing it was thought would be most to his hurt, actually turned out to be the most vital to his help.

You can't always tell, you can't even tell at all. That story they told on Charlie Keatts about his speech at the dedication of the Kinker monument didn't hurt so much as a trifle, apparently, as he carried Adams, the home county of his opponent by a decisive majority. May be though the average "delirious" in Adams doesn't know anything more about her most distinguished dead citizen than does Charlie.

The Huntington Advertiser says it is gratifying that Wilson has been elected without the vote of New York, Indiana, Illinois and New Jersey. So it is but at the same time it would have been more gratifying had he been elected with these commonwealths, more especially Illinois and Indiana, sharing in the glory of the victory. The happiest condition of the country would be that in which the voting is not colored by sectional line.

It never does to scoff at the weather man, you are sure to get the worst of it. Because he said it would rain and there was the barest precipitation in these parts, Sunday, he was given the scoff, but look what he has given us since. Many a plant and flower is withered and blighted because the people believed him not.

The figures, those everlasting figures, now show the women, God bless 'em, did it. In Kansas 53,000 more of them voted for Wilson than for Hughes and in California 8,000 more did the same thing. Without this vote Wilson would have carried neither state and so would not have been elected.

If we could only believe half of what these Democrats say, we would hold Long Green was the most influential factor in the election, outside of faith in Wilson.

Oh, no, the Democrats are not a longer and athirst after the offices. They know whom the people called to their service and being patriotic they mean to see that the call is heeded to the full.

THE MOST SILENT SPOT ON EARTH

You can't get so far away as not to be touched by it. The scarcity of fish in the Ohio river, from the plentitude of past years, is laid to the war. Pittsburgh, manufacturing immense quantities of munitions, has run the acids used in their production down into Ohio and they have slaughtered the finney tribe by wholesale.

A crush is not a whit different from a smash. Monday the British smashed the Teutons on the Somme and Tuesday the Teutons crushed the Roumanians on the Danube, but today the fighting is proceeding as merrily on both sectors as though nothing had happened.

Now it is the price of hairpins that has gone up. Think—well, we guess more than hasn't any right to think.

The man who loves to delve and produce statistics informs us, redheaded people seldom sue for divorce. It does not follow they fight their family-jars to a finish under their own roofs.

The Bluefield Telegraph says the present prosperity is not the kind that anyone wants to see continue. Bah! Let that anyone call around at the Telegraph office and ask for its share of present prosperity and see what he will get.

Raw cotton has touched the highest price since the war, evidently means to keep pace with wheat.

The newspapers have set the date for the sailing of the Deutschland. The only lack of reliability therein is that they haven't asked the gallant Captain Koenig and he has not seen fit to tell them.

This weather does suggest that it is time to begin Christmas buying.

Planning Big Rally

The officers in charge of the Men's Organized Bible Classes of the city are making arrangements for a big rally to be held in this city, probably the latter part of this month or early in December. John McMillan, president of the local organization said that the rally will be one of the first big rousing sessions to be held by local Bible class workers.

A prominent speaker will be secured for the occasion. The committee in charge is figuring on bringing Rev. Joseph A. Bennett, Baptist minister of Sistersville, W. Va., for this meeting. Rev. Bennett, who is a teacher of a men's class of over 300, held the delegates to the recent Chillicothe meeting spellbound when he told them of the wonderful things accomplished in his town by the organized Bible classes.

In Columbus R. E. Scott, local N. & W. passenger agent is in Columbus and is temporarily in charge of the N. & W. ticket office in that city.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O.O. MEINTYRE.

New York, Nov. 16.—Dr. Frank Dodge, aside from being head nozzle-man at the Pelham Fire Department, is one of Broadway's most unique characters. He is also one of the world's greatest jokers. He is a solemn-looking fellow, who rarely smiles. For many years he has joshed Broadway about his unusual experiments in entomology. Those who hear him are amazed at his profound knowledge.

He talks learnedly of his ice worms and his search ants and has letters and documents from high officials in the Agricultural Department and the Bureau of Animal Husbandry complimenting him on his valuable research work and expressing regret that there is not funds to aid him in his endeavors.

A reporter went to interview him last week on his remarkable enterprise. The interview took place in the grill of the Friars. For two hours Mr. Dodge explained the breeding of ants for commercial purposes and the enormous profits that may be secured.

He not only fooled the reporter, but the editors saw fit to print a two-column scientific article on the research work. He talks as scientifically about the crop of ice worms and search ants as Maurice Maeterlinck could about bees and Henri Fabre about wasps and spiders.

To topped off his interview by telling the reporters of his torpedo ant. Said he: "The torpedo ant is created by feeding an ordinary search ant nitro-glycerine, phosphorus and saltpetre until they are zinged and swollen like a water-soaked bean. The ants can then be thrown on a hard pavement and they explode like a torpedo. They are bred only for Fourth of July purposes."

The other morning the Black Maria drew up at the Jefferson Market court to take a batch of offenders to prison. While the van was being filled with the detsman and jessam of a night of feignity, there was one old woman, also an old offender, who said to a man in the wagon: "Get out of my corner. That is mine."

The man moved sulkily, and the door to the van was closed. The old woman put her face to the bars and said to the driver in dulcet tones: "Home James."

Kiddies in the large New York hotels must be amused. Over in Brooklyn, at the Hotel Bossert, the guiding genius of the hostelry, F. D. Ray, Jr., has fixed up the roof which overlooks New York harbor for a kite-flying ground for children.

At first only the children allowed their kites to float out over the river, and then young society girls began flying kites, and after awhile it became a conviction that the exercise was good for those wishing to reduce, and now the roof is crowded on all clear days with young girls and matrons flying kites.

On Columbus avenue uptown there has just opened a white-tiled cafeteria that cost the proprietor $20,000. The owner is 22 years of age and is a law student at Columbia. He came to America from Greece five years ago. He worked at night as a writer and studied during the day. By dint of hard saving he managed to accumulate $150. He opened up a little restaurant and did all the cooking and waiting on customers himself.

The business grew and all the money earned was spent on improvements. Finally he rented the ground floor room next door. Step by step he improved the place. He has figured it out that if his progress continues in the next five years as it has in the past five, he will be able to retire, but he is not of the retiring kind. The Little Worry
I had a little worry,
That followed me around,
'Twas never in a hurry,
And tracked me like a hound.

I took it to my pastor,
Who told me it was sent
To save me from disaster
By making me repent.

The lawyer, doctor, plumber,
The butcher-boy, the nurse,
All passed it up, and glumly
I've never felt, nor worse.

I took it to a grocer
Who seemed to need a clerk;
"I think," he said, "I know, sir,
Your trouble. Get to work!"

I did (the pay was rotten),
But worry, left outside,
Was plum and clean forgotten—
It bit itself, and died.

Dog and Man
A physician was driving through a village when he saw a man amusing a crowd with the antics of his trick dog. The doctor pulled up and said: "My dear man, how do you manage to train your dog that way? I can't teach mine a single trick."

The man, glanced up, with a simple rustic look and replied: "Well, you see, it's this way. You have got to know more'n the dog or you can't learn him nothin'."—Our Dumb Animals.

Doc Koko—As "A Democrat" tearfully wrote the obituary of "G. O. P." a few evenings ago, I wish to rectify his enthusiastic error.

"G. O. P." is still very much alive and safely among his few million friends. He who suffered near martyrdom was "American Eagle." Those gaudy and priceless feathers of which he was once so proud, feathers nurtured and stroked by the gentle hand of Uncle Abe, oiled and combed by the firm but loving touch of idolized McKinley, clipped and kept graceful by Teddy's discerning eye, have been silently, but not painlessly removed and in their place substituted the white and yellow feathers of "strict accountability," "too proud to fight," "Inertia's salute" and "Carriani's ambulance."

Now, "American Eagle" sulks about, unseen and unnoticed. As the jubilant song of quicksand and prosperity is sung by the Democratic Publicity Chair, accompanied by the wails of widows and the sobs of Europe's orphans, he steals away to ponder o'er the departed glories of other days, while with prophetic eyes he sees himself four years hence attired anew, feathers of honor resplendent in the morning rays of warless prosperity, pinned on with the "Safety First" pins of Protective Tariff. "A REPUBLICAN."

Human Fly Again

"Crazy Jack" Williams, the so-called "Human Fly" who so successfully scaled the flat sides of the First National bank building Wednesday evening before an immense crowd, will repeat his performance at the same building this evening at 7:30 o'clock, and will make the climb blindfolded. As an extra thriller he announces that he will also make a "slide for life" down a rope from the top of the building to government square.

Get busy, men! Don't let the fact that you are temporarily out of a job make your whole future look black. Read TIMES WANT ADS.

Tinkle, Tinkle, Mr. Hinkle, That's The Way All His Money Went

T. E. Hinkle was the name given by a Duke, Rarden township farmer, who was robbed while aimlessly wandering around in the "Bad Lands" late Wednesday night.

Patrolmen Flowers and Beaumont found Hinkle lying in a helpless heap at Twelfth and Railroad streets Thursday morning at 1:45 o'clock, with not a penny left of the $40 he claimed to have brought with him when he came to the city on a noon N. & W. train Wednesday to visit a dentist. Hinkle pleaded guilty in police court to a charge of drunkenness. He said it cost him $3 to have his teeth fixed. After that he went to New Boston and made the rounds of saloons there. He said he next turned up at a saloon near the N. & W. depot at 4 o'clock, but was ejected from it because of his condition. He had no recollection of meeting anyone after walking out the railroad tracks.

"You were simply 'rolled' out there, and I think I know who got your money, but I can not prove it. This is the fifth or sixth case of the kind that has happened out in that section in the past few weeks," said the mayor, then imposed a $5 fine on Hinkle for being so foolish as to visit that dangerous locality, telling him that besides losing his roll, he was lucky in not having been knocked in the head.

Human Fly "Makes Good," Scales "Skyscraper" Wall

Portsmouth craned its neck, that is about 5,000 people who jammed their way in Government Square Wednesday night to see "Crazy Jack Williams," self-styled "human fly," scale the outer wall of the eight-story bank building, Gallia and Chillicothe streets.

Garbed in a pair of white overalls and with his shoulders encased in a flaming red striped sweater and bare-headed, Williams made good his promise at eight o'clock last night. After reaching the first window ledge of the building on the Gallia street side he consumed just 21 minutes in reaching the top story of the building. Once on top he waived at the neck-stretched audience in the street and then smilingly "shinned up" the flag pole on the roof of the building. While scaling the wall of the building from window to window, he paused at the sixth story and with head downward, he yelled to the crowd that he was reading The Daily Times. And he held a Times in his hands and read about his coming to the city. Williams, a slender law-headed youth, was greeted with applause as he reached the window on each of the building. He would lower the top street side he consumed just 21 minutes in reaching the top story window ledge to another. Several places he was compelled to get a "lift" from two men, who were in the building and always a floor ahead of him. A rope was extended to Williams when he reached the eighth floor and he was yanked over the top wall of the building. He then climbed the flag pole and waved at the crowd that shivered through his most unusual performance.

So dense was the crowd in Government Square that all forms of traffic in that vicinity paused while Williams executed his wall scaling stunt. Street cars, automobiles, trucks and all forms of vehicles were held up.

A MOB STORMS JAIL

Wyandotte, Mich., Nov. 16.—Armed deputies surrounded the Wyandotte city jail today, guarding the life of Samuel Gianola, an Italian, arrested on suspicion of complicity in the murder of Harry Paul, 28, and Morris Harris, 22, shot down from a bush in the streets of the city last night. Three hundred enraged citizens stormed the jail at midnight, attempting to lynch the prisoner, but were driven off after a sharp struggle with police.

Council Appropriates Sum To Fight Suits Filed Against City

Two Damage Claims Are Announced At Meeting; Get Ground For Park

Matters discussed and measures enacted at the regular meeting of city council Wednesday evening did not include the Zaph-Sunset avenue and Twentieth street controversy, which has taken a prominent part in deliberations of this body for some time. Several ordinances and resolutions were passed.

L. A. Zucker, clerk, read two communications, each notifying the legislative branch of the municipality of damages claimed. One was from Edward Doerr asking $400 damages to lot 243, Barr addition, in anticipation of the paving of Tenth street. The other was a claim filed by Tessie Fyffe for $5,000 damages alleged sustained when she stepped into a sunken manhole at the corner of Third and Chillicothe streets and broke her left foot. Attorney Theo. K. Funk represents the complainant.

Both claims were referred to the law and claims committee and the city solicitor.

S. Anselm Skolton, city solicitor, reported that he had negotiated with Henry Hanes, owner of a strip of Gallia avenue, for the purchase of the same, to be used in straightening the street. Upon the recommendation of the owner, a board of arbitration consisting of J. P. Wanless, Val Heisel and Merle O. Dudditt, was appointed to set a value upon the property. Two members appraised it at $300 and the other member at $1800.

The owner agreed to accept $300 and the solicitor recommended that the price set by the majority of the board be accepted. The solicitor was instructed to bring in the legislation necessary.

A letter from S. D. Eckhart, county auditor, stating that $1,552.50 transferred to the city library fund from the collateral inheritance tax, was read. This transfer should have been made to the general fund, according to the county auditor, and was recommended for the library fund inadvertently, through not having a copy of the statute pertaining to the matter.

City Will Fight Case

Ordinances were passed under suspended rules appropriating $1,500 to defray the expenses of defending the suit instituted against the city by Frank A. Bone for royalties alleged due on infringement of patent rights in the construction of the flood wall, and for $1,400 for a suit filed by the John H. McGowan company for the remainder due on the installation of pumping equipment at the water works and for extras claimed.

Mayor H. H. Kaps reported that several citizens living on Poplar street wanted a sanitary sewer. A petition will be presented.

Service Director Ralph Calvert submitted the following estimates, for which legislation was ordered: Paving Bond street, between Front and Second streets, estimate $1,597.50 and the paving of Chestnut street between Walnut and Gallia, estimate $1,773.

More Fire Hose Needed Says "Glink"

The urgent need of 450 feet of fire hose and the quick disposal of the horses and other apparatus at the three engine houses, was voiced by Safety Director E. K. S. Clinkenbeard. He stated that he had been advised by the Seagraves company, Columbus, that the other two motor trucks, which will complete the motorization of the departments, would arrive between December 1 and 5. Recommendations were also made that automobile accident insurance be issued on the new apparatus.

Fire Chief George Koerner said he was endeavoring to save the city as much money as possible and asked that the horses and harness and other paraphernalia pertaining to horse-drawn apparatus be disposed of just as soon as possible. Of the $552 asked by the board of election in an ordinance, Charles W. Wilson withheld $250 pending investigation. The rest of the amount asked was allowed under suspended rules. The $250 was listed as incidentals, rent, etc.

An ordinance authorizing the issuing of $2,000 worth of levy and embankment bonds was passed. The bonds will bear 4 1/2 percent interest.

The transfer of $120.51 from the Water Front Improvement fund to the Service fund was allowed by resolution.

The vacation of a six-foot strip on the north side of Walnut street, between Norfolk and Chestnut streets, was ordered. This strip of land will be used for sidewalk purposes. A tract of land containing 53 of an acre and located on Twelfth and Robinson avenue was appropriated for park purposes. This is the J. W. Bannan property.

Plans and specifications for installing a 2-inch water main in an alley between Summit and High streets and Vinton and Robinson avenues, were approved by resolution.

A tract of land consisting of 1.83 acres and located in Porter township near the new water works plant, which the Whitaker-Glessner company desires for further extension, was ordered sold at public auction to the highest bidder. This was done by the passage of an ordinance.

Levels Taken By Engineer
Samuel Harper, city engineer, reported that he had taken levels against the city by the John H. McGowan company and Frank A. Bone.

The net balance in the treasury streets, was ordered. This strip of in the basement of a building at

Work of erecting the biggest bridge on the C. & O. Northern between Sciotoville and Waverly has been completed over the Little Scioto river two miles back of Sciotoville.

It is an under-truss bridge and is commonly called by the railroad men and contractors a culvert bridge, there being no overhead steel work to the structure. All supports are under the floor of the bridge or trestle. The main steel supports rest on small concrete piers, the largest piers being at the edge of the water.

The bridge or trestle extends from the end of the big fill across the Ketter farm on the west bank of the river to Merwin hill which is at the eastern end of the Narrows back of Sciotoville. The bridge not only carries the tracks over the river but over the low-land skirting the river on both sides. The floor of the bridge is over 100 feet from low water and is almost 1000 feet long. The tracks of the new railroad go from the field onto the bridge and then into the deep cut in Merwin hill. The bridge is over 40 feet from the road that is along the base of the hill that forms the Narrows.

The Stroebel Steel Construction company of Chicago did the work, the steel being furnished by the M. Vernon Bridge company, the company that furnished steel for the Scioto river bridge at the west end of the city. The Stroebel company completed the work in three months and is already moving its large "travelers" used in lifting the massive pieces of steel. The Stroebel company also placed the steel culverts that carry the C. & O. N. tracks over the H. & O. S. W. at Mud Pit, mile and a half back of Sciotoville. J. H. Finley was the superintendent in charge.

Knights Hold Fine Meeting

Almost the entire membership of Portsmouth Council, Knights of Columbus, attended the experience meeting at St. Mary's school hall, Tuesday evening.

Quite a delegation of knights from Ironton was also to have come down in automobiles, but owing to the bad weather they abandoned the trip. The members admitted to the order at the recent joint class initiation in Ironton related their experiences, this proving one of the interesting features of the program arranged by Lecturer Edward E.
